"Faces of old and faces of new. People we know and people we knew. Growing together then drifting apart. Always an ending and now a new start. At graduation we all grow nearer, and all of our friends seem to much dearer. And as we say our final goodbye, one last embrace and one more cry. A "keep in touch" and a "promise I will," a "remember when" but, better still; a place in my heart, you'll always stay. This is what's said as we go our own way."

Thanks mom & dad for always being there for me. Bubba you're the best, love you...the best years are yet to come.

I'll always remember my boys, Joe, Derek, Kev, and Smitty. Half-days at Rodman's. Those long trips to Taco Bell. Intense ping pong games in Joe's basement. Bumpin' in Derek's car. Kev being the funniest I'll probably ever meet. Smitty seeing ghosts and feeling like he was in New Hampshire. Chillin', listening to the Chronic 2001 every weekend. Our second home, Bird. Me and Joe blowing our noses in the bathroom. And of course, Derek dropping the bub. Great times, but can't wait for college.

"It is not intelligence alone that brings success, but also the drive to succeed, the commitment to work hard, and the courage to believe in yourself. Know that your dreams must come from your heart's deepest desires. Only then will the barriers come down before you. To know your heart, you must know yourself. You are who you decide to be, not who other people decide for you to be. Be noble. Stand on the higher ground. Create your life and then go out and live it."

Loafe with me on the grass…loose the stop from your throat, Not words, not music or rhyme I want…not custom or lecture, not even the best, Only the lull I like, the hum of your valved voice. I mind how we lay in June, such a transparent summer morning; You settled your head athwart my hips and gently turned over upon me, And parted the shirt from my bosom-bone, and plunged your tongue to my barestript heart,And reached till you felt my beard,and reached till you held my feet.

It's the pathos of people that gets us down, all the lovers in this dream.

good times at WHS where did the time go it seems like yesterday I was walking into the high school for the first time. I remember hearing freshman year that the next 4 years would fly and it has I often think of how many big events happened during our 4 years here between sept 11 the override, to the Pats' 2 superbowls the sox world series the presidential election I realize that these 4 years have been for the most part a great 4 years. fun times in phily good luck to everyone in the future

Joshua Innocent

We've laughed together, we've cried together, we've grieved together. As students and friends we've been together for so many years. Now has come the time to leave together and take our separate ways. All the great times we've had, all the sad ones we've shared. I'd never thought I'd have to say this, but I guess the end sneaks up on all of us. Well all I have to say is, class of 05, , MB, JD, LM, AJ, AB, JC AS, LK, MP, Jen D, SD, JL, and my blood brother LJ, it's been a blast. I couldn't ask for better friends. Good Luck 05'

I don't think you can measure life in terms of years. I think longevity doesn't necessarily have anything to do with happiness. I mean happiness comes from facing challenges and going out on a limb and taking risks. If you're not willing to take a risk for something you really care about, you might as well be dead.

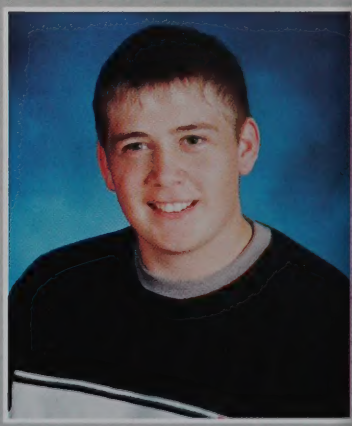
When no one thought it could be done it was. When everyone thought I would fail, I made it. When there seemed to be no hope at all I found it. When you thought I was gone, you were wrong. It doesn't matter what you tried to do. You couldn't destroy me. I'm still strong and I always will be because I hold my own destiny and I will never be stopped.

Joseph Niland



Andrew Niss

Wow, I can't believe I'm already writing my senior blurb, time flies. My years at WHS have been fun. I've had a great time doing things like track, baseball, robotics, and especially directing in the film festival (that was the most fun). Summers were always the best. I will always remember the trips to Maryland with my friends; that was some of the most fun I've ever had. Summer was also filled w/ great Frisbee games and rounds of hacky sack. Go KC. In some ways I want to stay where I am, but in others I want to move on. What will the future hold? This is all really cliche, but hey it's real. Bye WHS.

The past four years have some of the best years I have ever had. I will never forget all the time spent with the Crew; Jon, Pat, Adam, and Donut Boy and all the fun we had just hanging out. No matter what we did we found a way to make it fun. You guys are some of the best friends a kid could ask for. I need to say thanks to my parents for putting up with me, and for pressuring me to do well in everything I did and never allowing me to fail. I love you so much. All you guys made these few years better then anyone of imagined. I have learn a lot from everyone of you and I am a better person because of it. Just remeber..... REBEL ATHLETICS

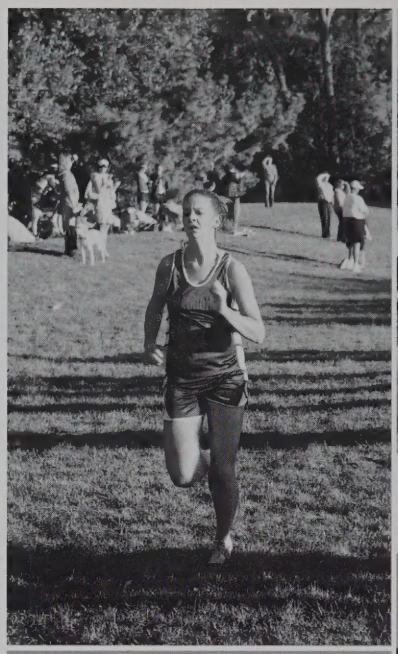
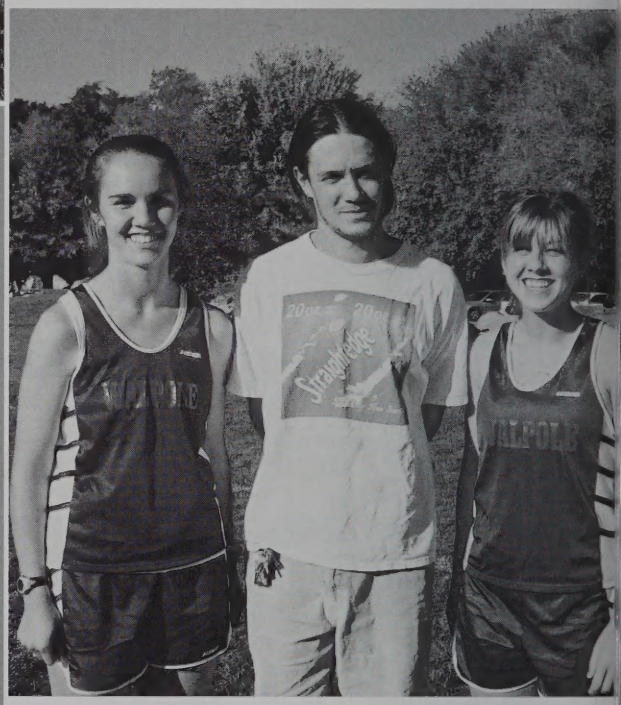
The Rebels played many tough teams this season, including Weymouth, Wellesley, and Newton North, resulting in many close losses and a few exciting wins.



Young Runners Look Strong

Coach Giblin with the superior leadership of Senior Captains Shannon Barry and Kaitlyn Quealy led a strong squad of underclassmen this year. The captains were great influences on such a young team, both being dedicated to their sport.

Although Barry and Quealy will be lost to graduation, Coach Giblin beleives that with a strong core of underclass runners, the lady rebels will be a force to be reckoned with in the future.



2004 Girls Cross Country

Even though the Rebels did not finish with a winning record, they made a number of personal accomplishments. With Senior Captains Shannon Barry and Kaitlyn Quealy, and standout underclassmen, like Nicole Eckart, Brianne McDonough, Katie McMullen, and Rachel Brevich, the Rebels were able to make a number of personal bests throughout the season.

Coach Giblin and Captains Shannon Barry & Kaitlyn Quealy
Barry and Quealy, along with their teammates, "have contributed in gaining points for the team and placing in the top seven, and they all manage to push each other for personal bests," said Coach Giblin.

2004 Field Hockey

The Walpole Porkers once again reclaim their title as the State Champions!

The WHS Field Hockey team claimed the State Championship title in a 5-2 victory over Notre Dame Academy Rebels of Worchester. Senior Captain Lauren Hartnett made 3 goals in the game.

The Porkers finished with a nearly perfect record of 17-1. The 2004 State Championship title is the seventh won since 1994, once again giving Walpole precedence over Division 1 Field Hockey.

Captains Bonnie Shea, Tricia McCormick, and Lauren Hartnett pose with Coach Murphy. The three senior captains played a big role in the recapturing of the state title.

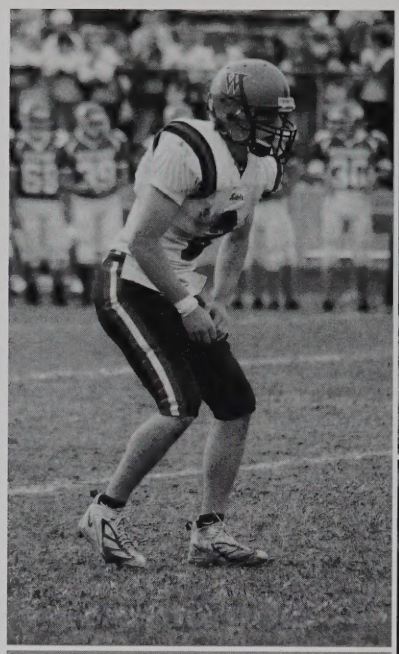
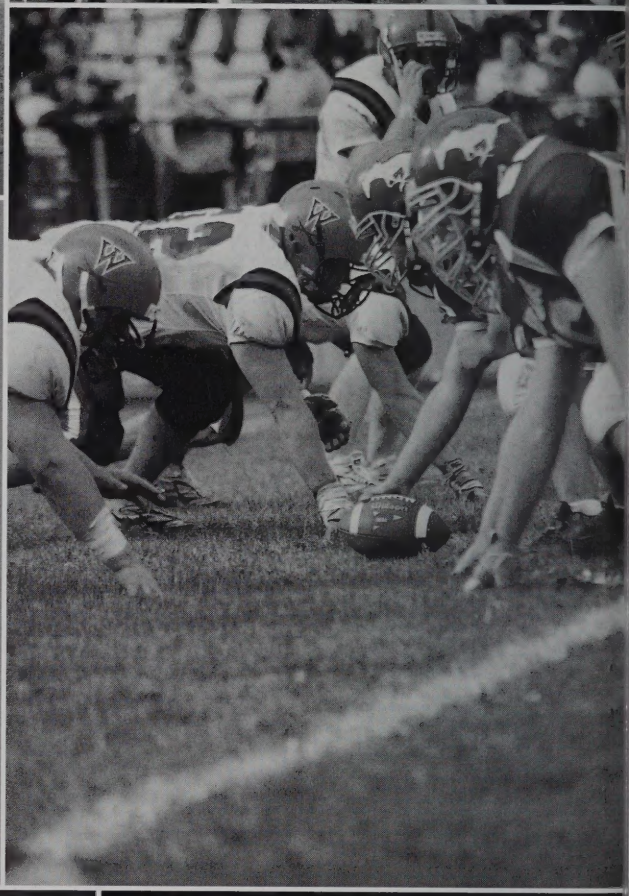
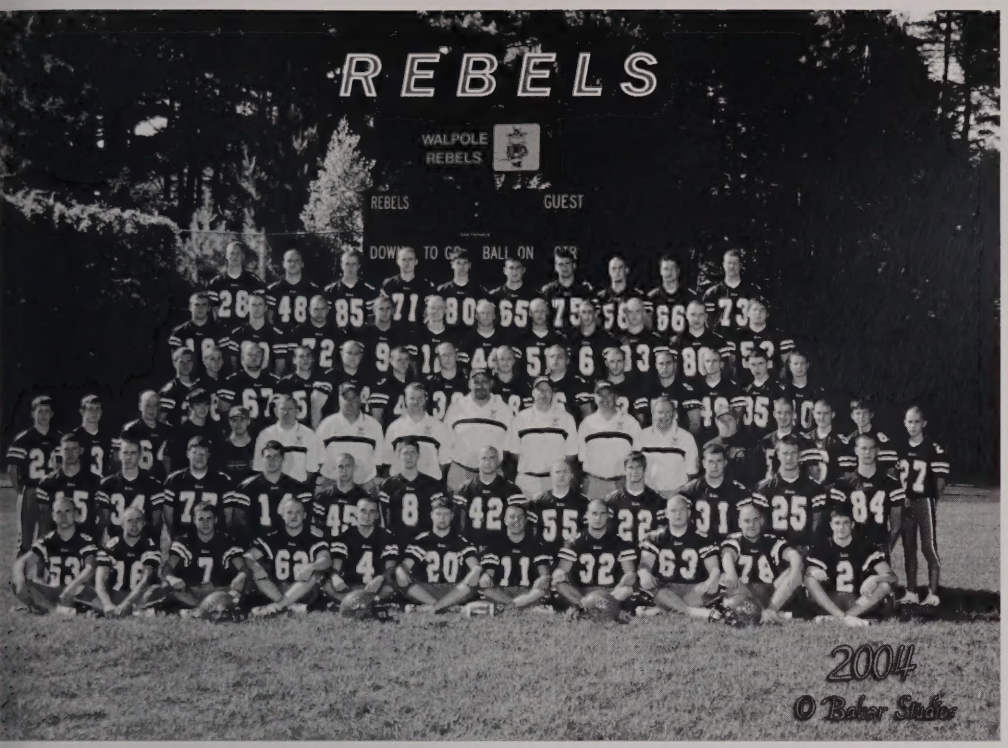
"'Never surrender' was echoed throughout the locker room," said senior Robert Foley. Captain Matt Savini added, "this is our season."



Rebels show their prowess on the field!

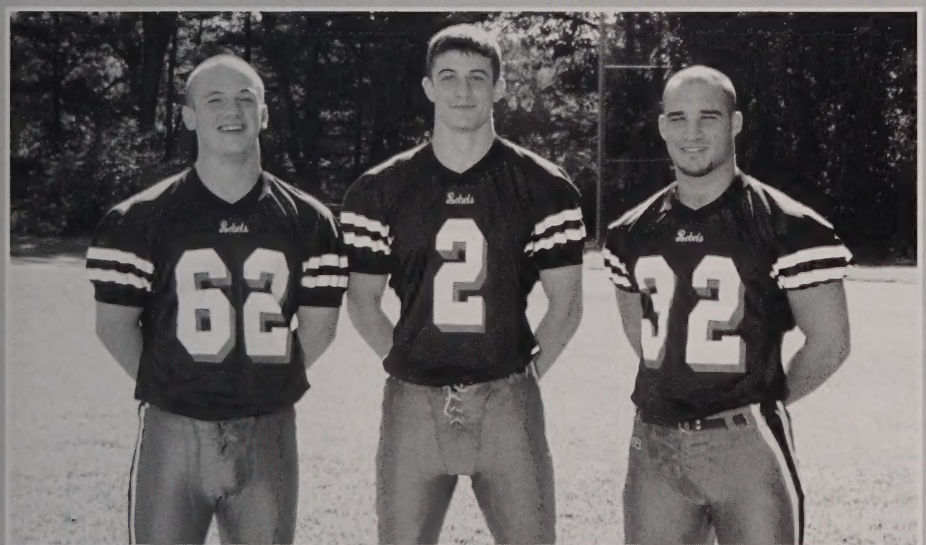
The Rebels had a very memorable season, fulfilling their goal by playing in the Superbowl and winning the league title. The team was able to start out their season with an exciting game under the lights for the first time.





Rebel Football

The Rebels once again proved themselves in the Bay State League by remaining league champs! A run at the Superbowl was unfortunately cut short by Mansfield, but the Rebels did not go down without a fight. Coach Villa is optimistic about the future of the football program.



Captains
The Rebel Football team was led by the talented trio of Matt Savini, Jared Zanello and Jeff Cuqua.

Right
2004 Rebel Soccer Team

An injury plagued season led the lady rebels to a very shaky season. Although their record may not have been a winning one, the numbers to do not peak for themselves. The lady Rebels were considered to be one of the toughest competitors in the Bay State League. The team always played to the finish regardless of the score. The team did not make the state tournament this year, but there are high hopes for next season.

Overall the team performed solidly together in all aspects of the game. The team, led by Captains Chris Lipsett, Jason DuBois and Geoff Kelly, along with the help from fellow seniors Jamel Saibi and Darren Burke, turned into an offensive powerhouse. However it is combined with the powerful defense led by Senior Goalie Mike Susen, Sean Coveney, Chris Joseph, Kevin Butera and Dan Henriksen.

Rebels used their exceptional dribbling and passing skills to keep the ball away from their opponents. The depth and strenngth of both the team and the bench has afforded the Rebels many opportunities.

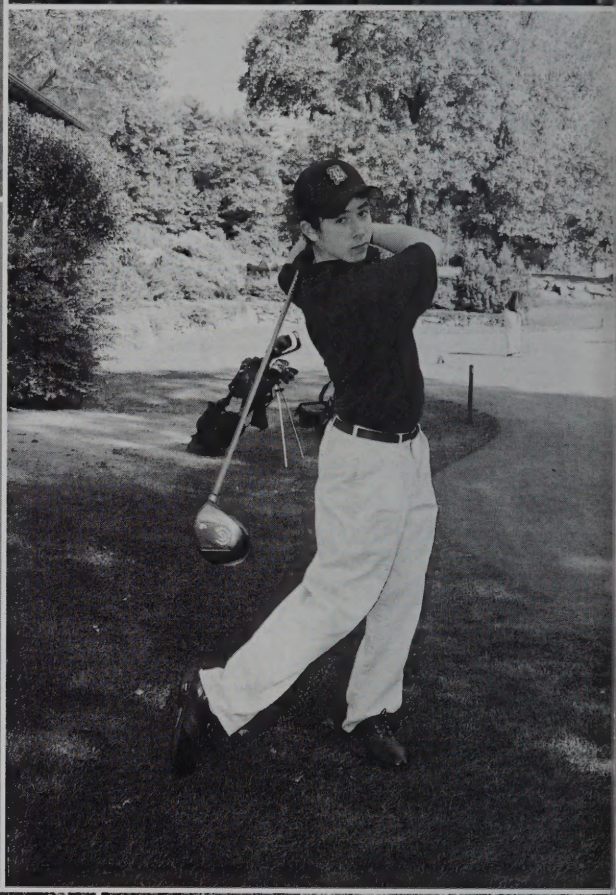
REBEL GOLF

As usual the Rebel golf team proved to be dominant in th Bay State League. Among the many talented golfers, Seniors Mark Metcalf and Junior Chris Holley, stood out as the appointed Captains.



Talented Group of Underclassmen

Fortunately for WHS golf enthusiasts, the team will only lose one of their key players, Metcalf, to graduation this spring. With members still remaining from the tournament squad, Holley, Tom Collins, Matt Mazzola, Mike Kent and Mike Morrissey, we can expect great things from Rebel golfers next season.

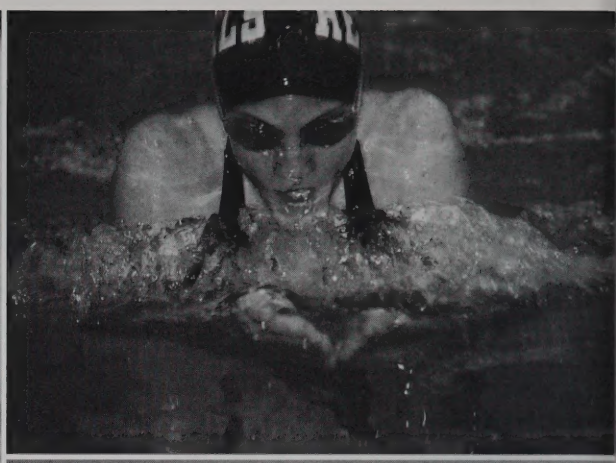
Diving is also a great strength for the Rebels in their meets. Leading the way is junior Kim Richard who has demonstrated her prowess on the board numerous times.



Jump from Underdog to Top Dog

The tides have turned and the Rebels have found themselves at the top of the Bay State League. Captains Kristin Collins, Michelle Pound and Cathleen Riley have lead the team by example and are always competitive in their events, consistently finish in the top threee. Other seniors include Caitlin Grant, Caitlin Costello, Angela Lanzoni, Meghan Kelly and Meghan Aldridge, who also have been very successful in their events and have aided the Rebels to numerous victories over the Bay State rivals.

Swimming & Diving

Under the leadership of Coach Cheryl Cavanaugh the Walpole Swimming and Diving team has made great strides and become a powerhouse in the Bay State League. By beating teams like Brookline, the Rebels have proven they are here to stay.

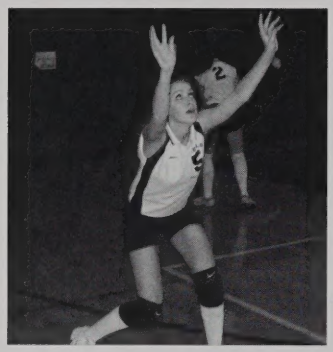
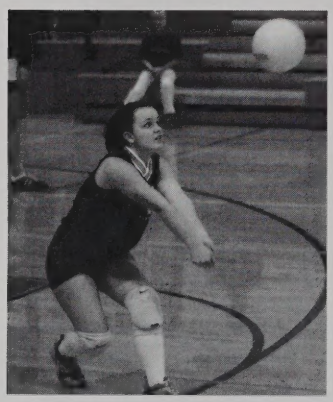
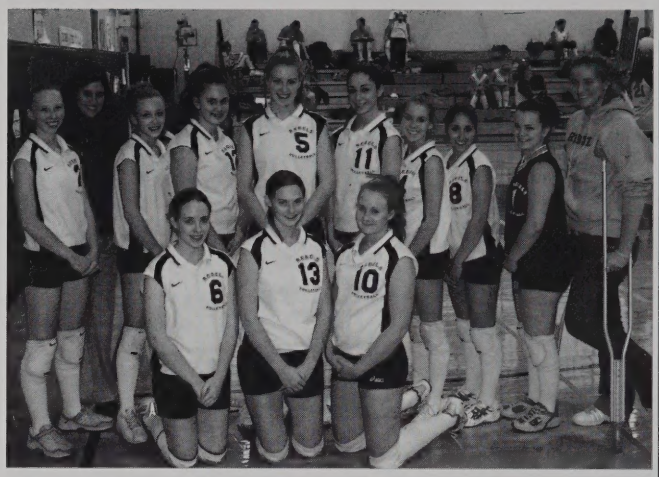
To the right the 2004 Varsity Volleyball team





The girls are ready for the set!



Despite a shaky record, the one thing that that has held this team together has been the seniors. The philosophy of the team was "Win or lose, play as a team", and that is what they did. One of the main weaknesses of the team is the youthful inexperience. Only half of this team had played previously at the varsity level and had very little playing time together in the past. Fortunately there are the skills to win games and with more experience playing together the future volleyball teams should see great success.

Cheerleaders Promote School Spirit

The fall cheerleading squad prepared throughtout the summer for one of their most challenging seasons wichih includes their participation in the football progam as well as their own competitions. Dedicated athletes, the cheerleaders display passion and spirit for their team, all other Rebel fans and for the entire school. they decorate the shcool and the lockers of the senior football players tying to encourage school spirit. Their presence at the games is vital to the whole football aura.

The team is compoirsed of five freshman Brooke JOhnso, Molly Gouthro, Ally Moran, Brittany Ouellette, and Molly Rosenman. As well as sophomores, Kima Bacevious, Lil Abely, Brooke Coleman, Caroline Izzo, Erin Kilduff, and Tricia Maloney; four juniors, Jessie Baldwin, Tracey Clenott, Captain Judy Jameson and Sarah Wichkam; and rounded out by the senior captains, Stephanie Rose and Missy MacNeil. Many of these girls continue to cheer in the winter season for both the boys and girls basketball teams.

2004 Fall Cheerleaders

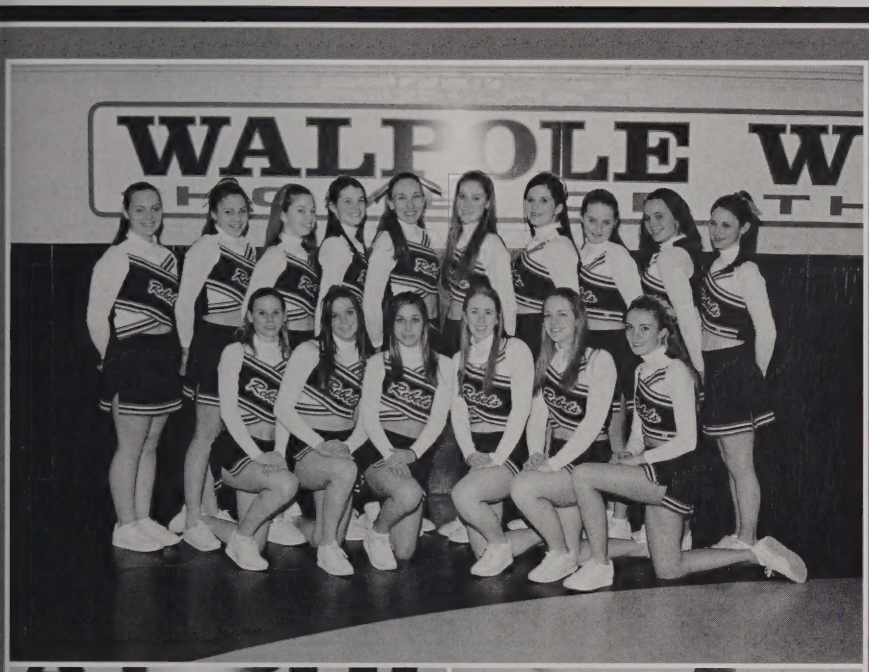
Walpole Rebels are the Best!!



Above is the Winter cheerleading squad who provides entertainment and excitement for the crowd during the basketball games. As well as the basketball games, the girls compete with other squads in the Bay State League. They are hoping for another successful placing at the Medway Invitational at press time.

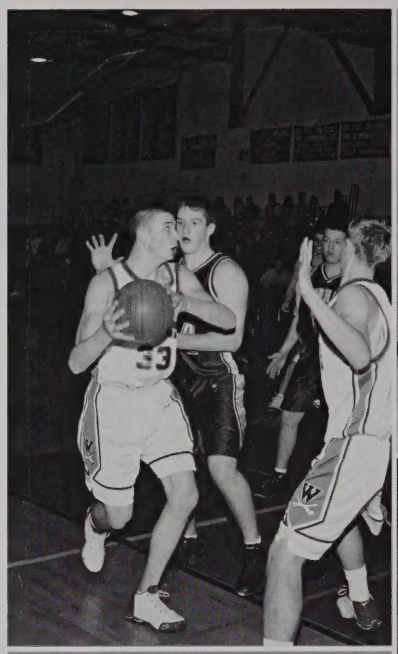
Tumbling, Dance, Cheer

Pyramids and Liberties have become the strength of this teams stunts.

Part for the reason for their new stunts is the choreographer Eric Bichao's input.

The great tumbling is the result of the girls attending gymnastic classes every Monday night.

Captains Rich Carty and Sean Coveney with coach John Johanesson. Although Coveney was lost to injury, he was still able to lead from the bench while Carty was the leader on the floor.



Uneven season for the Rebels

After graduating a very talented class, the team was lacking in experience. The seniors did their best to get the team moving. Captains Carty and Coveney led the team in scoring. Jake Murphy and Jared Zanello at the guard positions were able to move the ball effectively, while Jesse Betzer and Chris Christodoulou proved to be a presence down low. Unfortunately the loss of Coveney proved to be too much for the squad. Although they rebounded it was not enough to move forward into the state tournament.

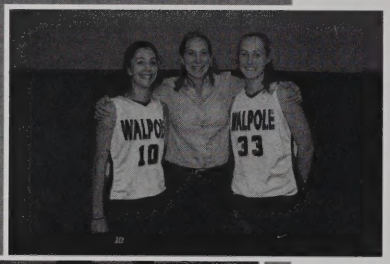
Boys Basketball

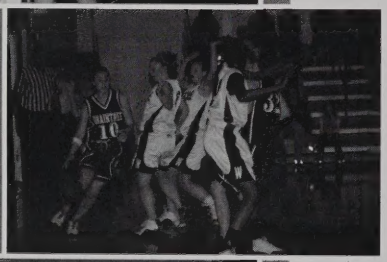
The 2004-2005 season was one of mixed emotions. Although the team did not reach their goal of making the tournament, they did regain the respect of the Bay State League with a strong run in the end.

DEFENSE!!
Seniors Jake Murphy, Chris Christodoulou and Jesse Betzner have their hands up ready to defend the hoop.

Girls Basketball

Captains Keri Murphy & Lauren Hartnett with Coach Bilodeau





As seen in the photos above it was the teams perseverance that lead them to many victories!

Girls make a run at State Title

Being number one is a tradition for the Walpole High girls basketball team. Every year, fans expect a winning season and even a chance to win the State. This year was no exception. the girls team did finish first in the Bay Sate League, however they did lose their final game in the Massachusetts State Championship Title game. With a young squad of only nine girls, the Rebels fought hard for every win. No longer considered the underdogs as they were last season, the Rebels closed the season with an impressive record of 22-3. The team was led by Senior Captain Lauren Hartnett and Junior Captain Keri Murphy.

Looking back on such a successful season it is hard to imagine that they lost the championship. Two major factors that prevented the loss were 3-point shots and the other teams defense.
The only senior to graduate this year will be Hartnett and her loss will be felt. Lauren has continually shown true leadership and dexterity on the court, a true role model to her teammates.

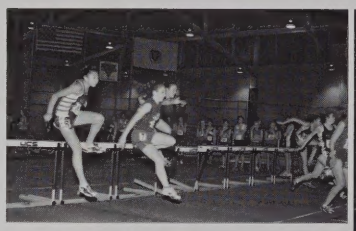
Coach Bilodeau

Surprising to many Rebel Fans, Coach Bilodeau has proven to many never doubt the Lady Rebels Basketball teams.

Nine Girls Advance to States



Despite an unforgiving winter and a very rigourous schedule, the girls track team bettered last year finishing 2-3. The girls maintained fifth place in their league amongst some suberb track teams. With a large group of freshman joining the team, the talent continues to grow. Although the team is graduating captains Dold, Quealy and Grant, and fellow senior Sarah Kiewlicz, the girls have a strong base in the underclass team members. Coach Cimeno has very high hopes for next season.

Stretching is a big priority for the girls before and after their runs. With injury plagued team, the girls know what they should do to take care themselves and compete.

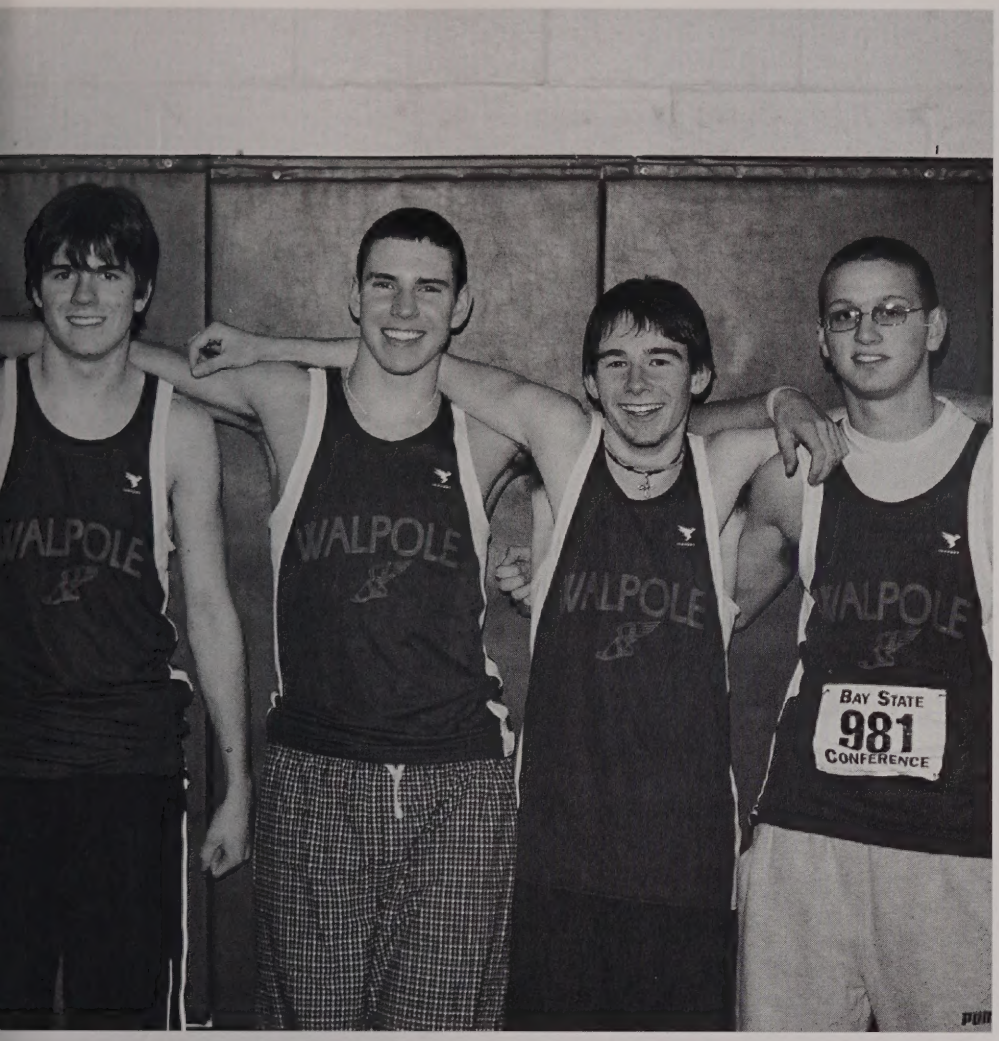
Six Qualify For State Meet

Despite securing a winning record, there were many great individual performances on the track with may of the athletes shaving seconds off of their personal bests. Junior Mike Zampi almost tied the school record in the 600, and ran undefeated in dual meets this season. Senior kevin Butera came in fifth in the 300 at the conference meet and also was the number one triple jumper at the Dartmouth relays. Senior Captains Doug Lawson and Phil Gingras qualified in their events as well. Overall the team was well balanced in all events. Although the team will lose some great athletes to graduation they should rebound well for the 2005-2006 season.



Senior Captains:
Ryan Norton, Doug Lawson, Phil Gingras & Kevin Butera

Boys Indoor Track

The boys track team has made tremendous strindes since their winless season last year improving to a record of 2-3. All this came despite training conditions of snow and cold temperatures, the boys still came out victorious in many events. In every meet the decision came down to the last few events, many times losing by just a mere 10 points.

Thankfully there will be the talented veterans of Steve Lipsett and Mike Zampi around to help guide the 2005-2006 indoor team and put some points on the board.

With next season at the varsity level look for great things from the girls hockey team.

Inaugural Season kicks off!

Learning a sport together has proven to be a bond unbreakable for the girls hockey team. This team shows great promise in the leaguetly the team holds a JV status although they have played both JV and varsity teams. The teams first victory came against Dehams junior varsity team, giving them confidence to go against much more established teams such as Brooklines varsity squad. Many of this seasons victories can be attributed to junior goaltenders Lisa Connolly and Christine Conroy, and the leading team scorer, Danielle Power.

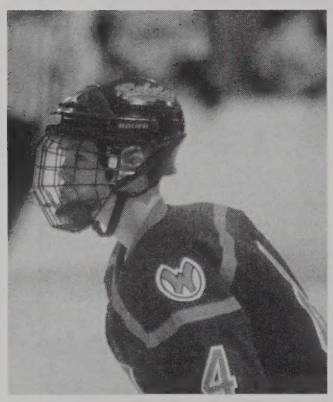
Teamwork has been key to the success of this team with many of the girls never having played any organized hockey.

Girls Ice Hockey

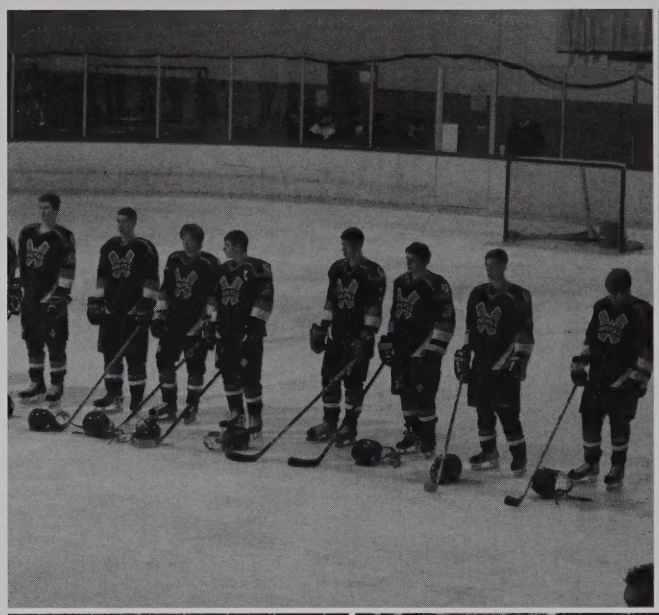
The girls of WHS have requested a hockey team for years and this year the request was granted. With a record of 10-7-1 the girls hockey team has proven to Walpole and the rest of the league that they are a competitive opponent.

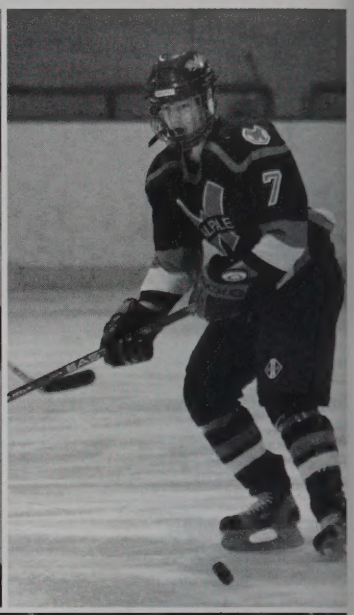
2004-2004 Girls Ice Hockey Team
This team comprised of mostly freshman and juniors was lead by Captain Lia Sukys, and alternate captions Michelle Casto and Danielle Power.

Rebels skate through Norwood into the State Tournament!



With a strong core of juniors, such as Tim Sweeney above, the Rebels look toward a bright future.





The hockey team is a team that grinds away at a very long season, often times without the huge fan base of many other teams. However, this year the Rebels have proven that they are a team that deserves a lot of credit, skating to a record of 9-7-5 and into the State Tournament.

The team has approached this season with the motto coined by the New England Patriots: "Team First", which is emblazened on the back of their practice jerseys. They have proved this by being one of Walpoles more successful hockey teams.

Captains Foley and Rodman will be missed due to graduation in the next season.

With three strong goalies in Juniors Mitch Mortali, Conor Crimmins a Seniors Ray Feeney, many opponents had a hard time scoring as seen above.

GYMNASTICS

Girls earn highest team score - 124.4 points - during the 2004-2005 Season.

Despite the rocky start, the team has really come together. Led by Carty and Debler, they team has improved at each meet. Debler has proven to be the teams strongest all-around member, followed by fellow junior Kim Richard. Freshman Jessica Moise has excelled at the floor, vault and uneven bars. Junior Tracey Clenott is also an outstanding contributor in both the floor and the vault. With the addition of Moise, fellow freshman Jess Lewis, and many other underclassman, the team is close to done with it's rebuilding.

Despite early struggles, the team has prevailed and had an impressive showing at the league meet. To the left is the 2004-2005 Gymanstics team led by coach Melissa Familglietti and Captains Senior Michelle Carty and Junior Katie Debler.

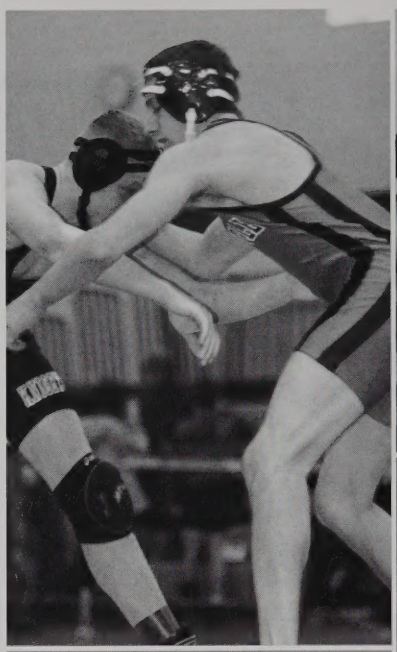
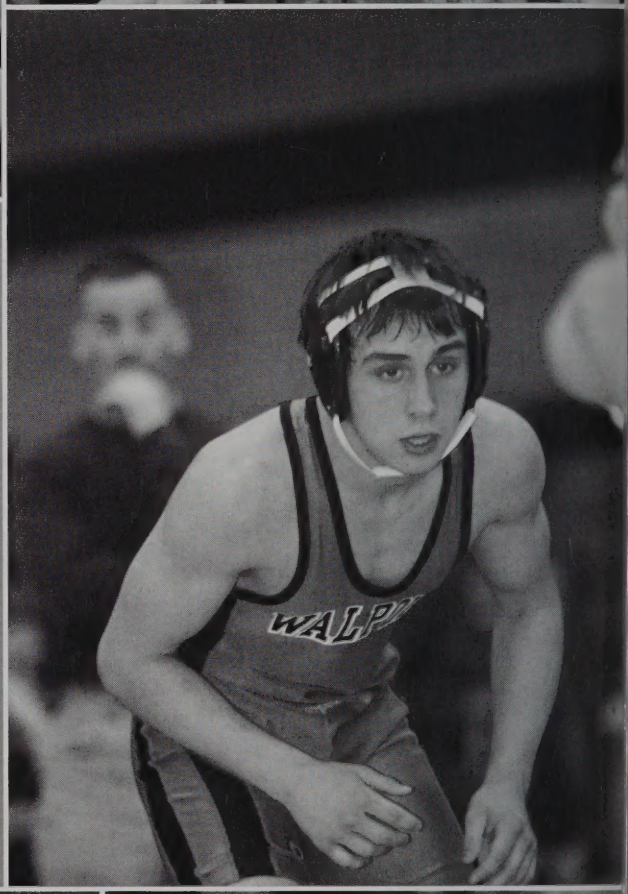
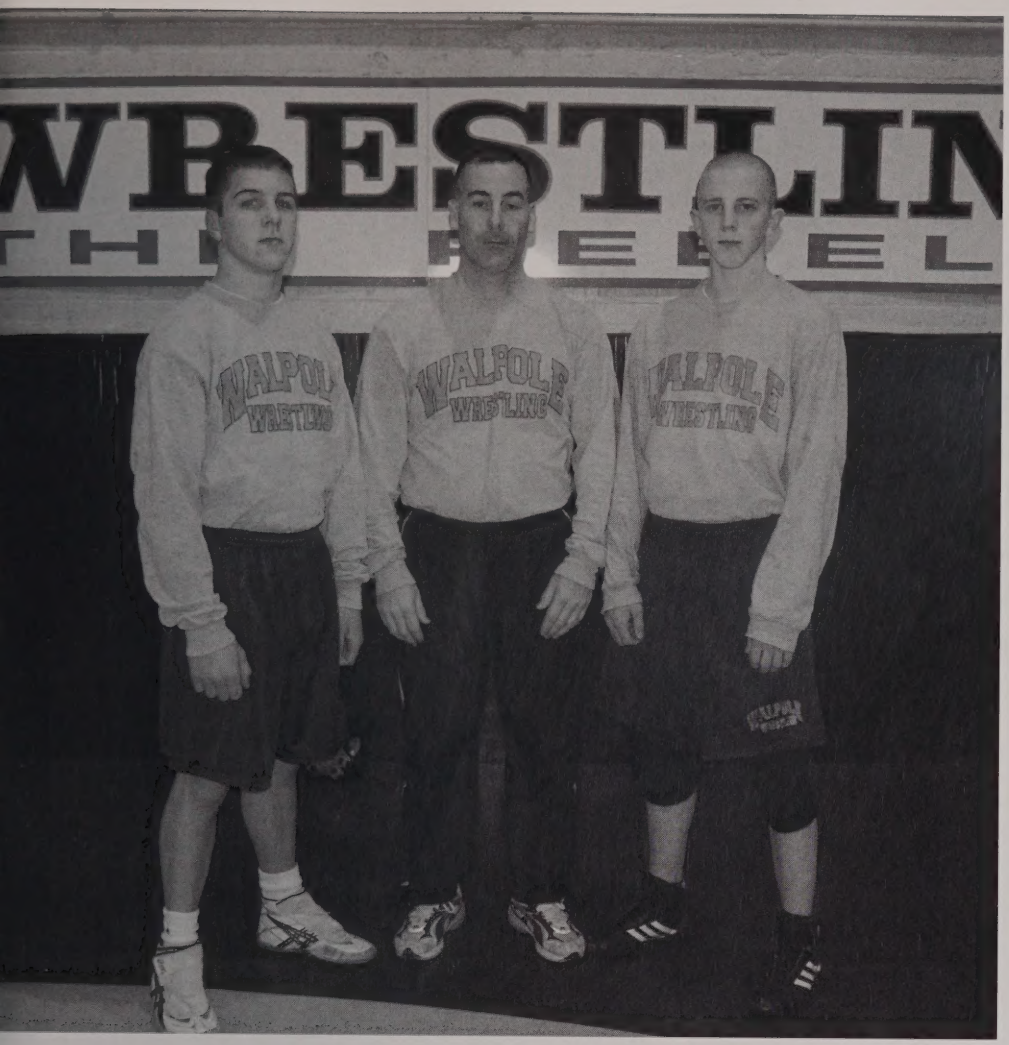
Victories over Needham, Barstable, Dedham, Hingaham and Norwood were great, however, as the team grows look for even more wins.



Team Thrives at Sectionals

The year started out with a band when the Holubesko brothers made the first finals of the year at the Marlboro Tournament. Sophomores Anthony LaMorte and Chris Shea also heled pick up the slack doing very well in their respective weight classes. These results gave the young team confidence going into the rest of the season. Despite having it's ups and downs in the beginning the team found success toward the end of the season. Placing 10th at the DII South Sectional Tournament, with a score of 102.5, the team felt good about their accomplishments. Due to strong performances by Brady, Matt and Mike Holubesko, Tom Fraser, Erick McGraw and Chris O'Shea, six wrestlers were able to go to the state tournament.

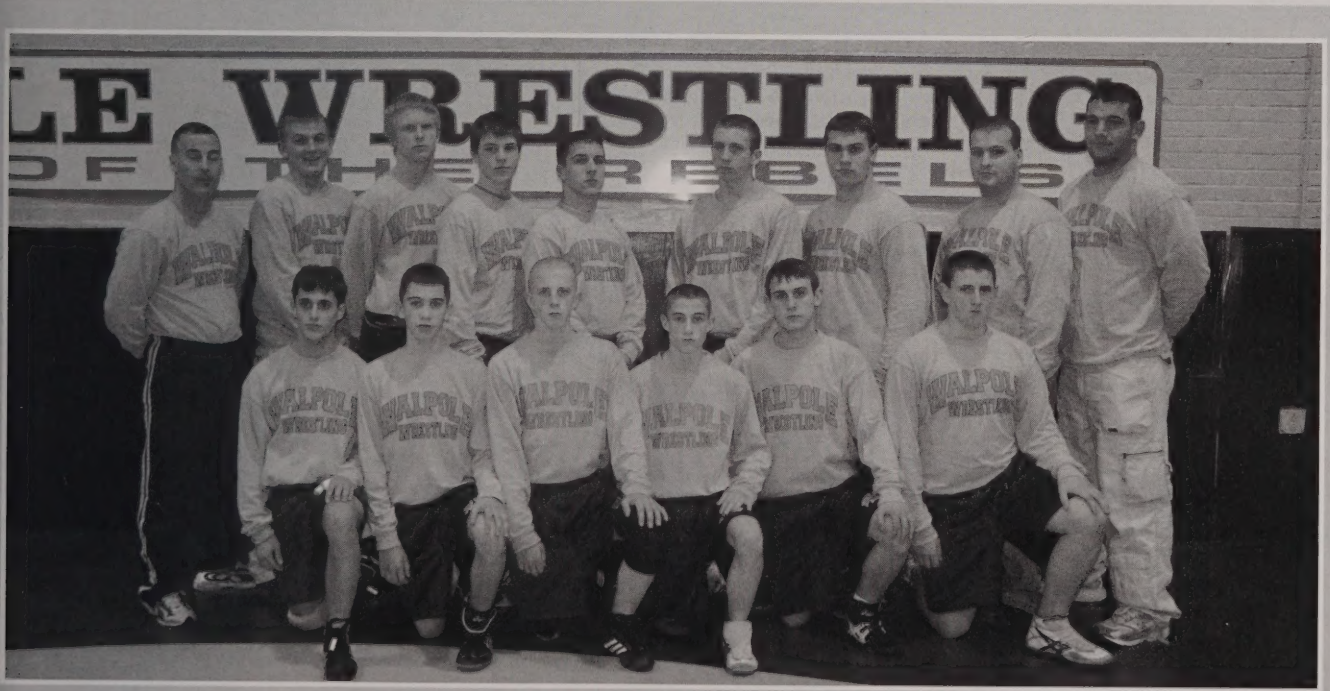




Captains Ryan Brady & Mike Holubesko with Coach
The very talented captains led a very young squad this season. They earned much accolade for their individual performances.

WRESTLING

Although the team has not had a very strong record over the past few years, however, with the emergnce of some key freshman and sophomores, the team has appeared to have turned the corner.
Doubling their wins over the past two years, with a 5-16 record, the Rebels have not only been impressive in dual meets, but also in tournament standings.



2004-2005 Varsity Wrestlers

The talent and determination of this underclass dominated team was not the problem in the poor record. Unfortunately it is a numbers issue, the team does not have enough people to compete in every event. The team will only graduate two seniors this spring, and with the strong junior class of Brianne McDonough, Nicole Eckart and Katie Mucciarone, the team has a bright future. Coach Giblin is very enthusiastic about the upcoming seasons.

Senior Captains Kaitlyn Quealy and Katrina Dold

Girls Spring Track

Captains Dold and Quealy have done their best to keep the team above the .500 mark. These two seniors have set a very high bar for the underclassmen. In the future seasons look for strong performances by Mary McAvoy, Liz Freiburger, Nicole Keeman, and juniors Brianne McDonough, Nicole Eckart and Katie Mucciarone.

Boys Spring Track

One of the best seasons on record for the boys track team in the last ten years. The depth in many events lead to sweeping scores.

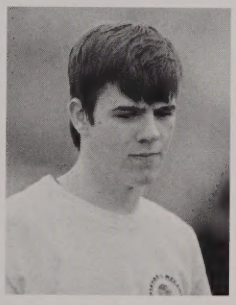
Field events have proven to be a trouble spot with a lack of depth in these areas. However, jumping doesn't seem to be a problem above!

Phil Gingras has proven to be a standout in the long distance events as well as juniors Steve Cain and Mike Zampi.

The extremely successful 2005 Boys Spring Track Team. The depth of this team has not been seen in years for Walpole Track.

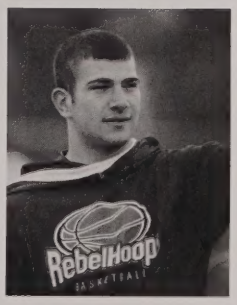
Strong Group of Seniors Lead Rebels

Senior Captains Kevin Butera, Phil Gingras and Doug Lawson led the team with great success in their own events.



Senior Ryan Norton aided in the distance events.

New addition Jake Murphy also proved to be dominant in his events.



The Rebels finished 17-3 and were ranked in the top 20 in the Boston Globe, finishing at 14 in the rankings.

Softball

Every season has a pivotal game and this year it was against Dedham, with both teams entereing the gam undefeated, but only one team could remain in first place. The Rebels fought hard and the Marauders were unable to contest, leaving the Rebels with the Bay State League title. The Rebels have wasted no time in shattering prevous misconceptions of the talent on this team. Although everyone has high hopes for the State tournament, the team focuses on one game at a time. The future is very promising for the softball team.

2005 Softball

At press thime the Rebels softball team had opened the season with a record of 7-0. A record very impressive for a team with a new caoch and a very competitive schedule. Despite this great record the wins have not always come easily, however the success of the team can be attributed to solid pitching and strong defense.

Coach Tompkins led a very talented team all the way to the 2005 State Finals. Unfortunately the Rebels lost in a very close game to West Springfield. The Rebels went into the final game on an 18 game win streak. The ten seniors that led this team can be very proud of this outstanding season.

The talented seniors have been essential to this years post season success. Led by Captains Grant, Shea, Cohn and McCormick, as well as Hartnett,Tierney and Cuddy, the team has been prepared to take any adversary.
With this talented group graduating, the future of the team lies in the hands of the juniors and outstanding sophomore standouts Darby Webber and Alex Guisti.

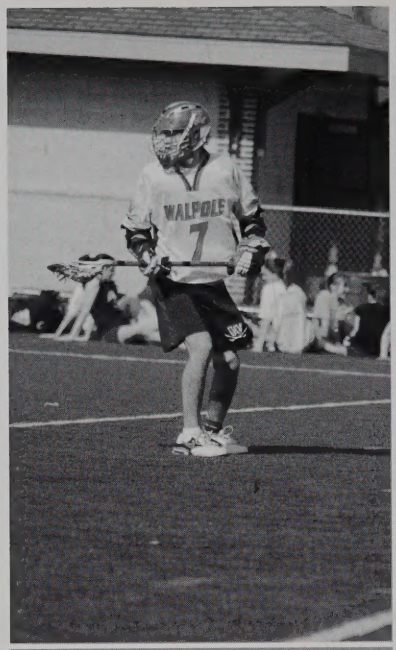
"It was a total team effort, we came to play."

The girls were seeded 6th in the State tournament and lost in the second round to Hopkinton, who went on to lose to the State Champions.

Going into the tournament with a record of 10-5-3, the girls continued to show their strength and new found dominance in the Bay State League.

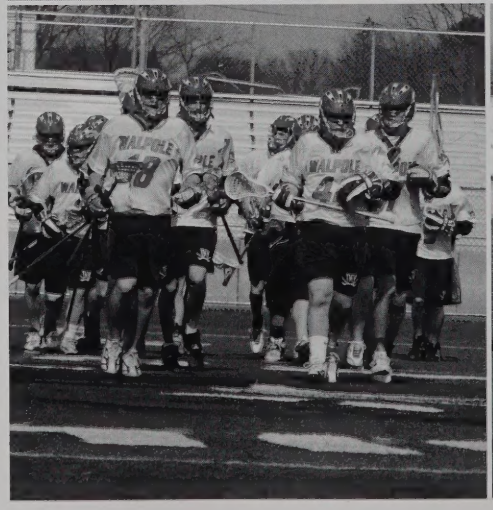
The team completed their initial goal of making the tournament and even took that a step forward. With the optimism of fresh young coaches, the girls lacrosse team will soon become a very familiar face in the State tournament.

The strong conditioning of the Rebel team is often what allowed them such ease in their victories over their opponents.



Second appearance in State Tournament

The Rebels had already bested last years season by winning more games in April than the team did all together last season. The Rebels were led by Senior Captain Dan Maiorana, often one of the leading goal scorers on the team. Fellow Captain Derek Rodman also saw plety of actions. Senior Matt Shakespeare was named to the 1st team All Star in the Bay State Leage and 2nd team EMASS, fellow seniors Dan Maioran and Tim Pelletier were given 2nd team All Star for the Bay State league. Only graduating the six seniors is both a positive and a negative. Despite the small number, they are large holes to fill.



Boys Lacrosse

The team went into the State tournament ranked 13th with a record of 13-5. The beat Pentucket in the first round and lost to Needham in the second round. Although they did not win a state title it was still a very successful season for the team on all ends of the spectrum. Every member made major contributions.

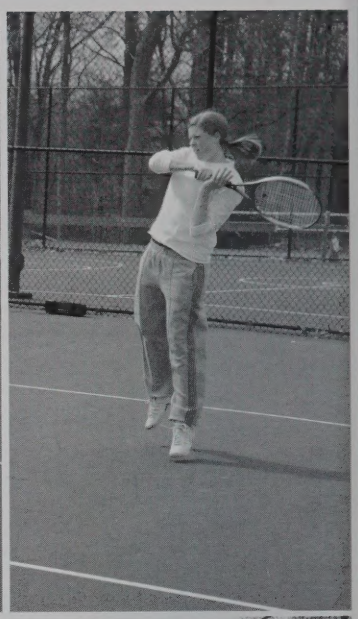
Coach Powers offers some words of advice before the match.

The rebels get ready to take on some of the toughest competition in the Bay State League.



The tennis team still struggled in a league full of state championship contenders. Under the leadership of lone senior captain Lindsay Ahearn, a team of underclassman had a very up and down season. However, these underclassman do show a great deal of promis. Sophomore Amy Shaw has done superb in first singles and fellow sophomore Kim Betzner has done just as well at second singles. The Rebels have also relied on their doubles teams of Ahearn and Marissa Goba as well as Erin Teich and Taylor Anchukaitis. Ahearn feels the team unity is trong enough to carry the team and she had great confidence in her younger teammates.

Rebel Squad Competitive to End

One of the biggest challenges for the Rebels was finding tandems to play first and second doubles. The new pair is Trll and rising star Jeff Fagan, together creating a very strong combo. Tom Flemming and Rob Vanasse filled the second doubles spot and Ryan Brady, Max Bouzinov, Mike Consiglio an Dean Cohn, with Kevin Smith and Kenny Heed filling out the varsity players.
Despite their young team the Rebels had a fairly successful season and Coach Gough looks forward to next season.

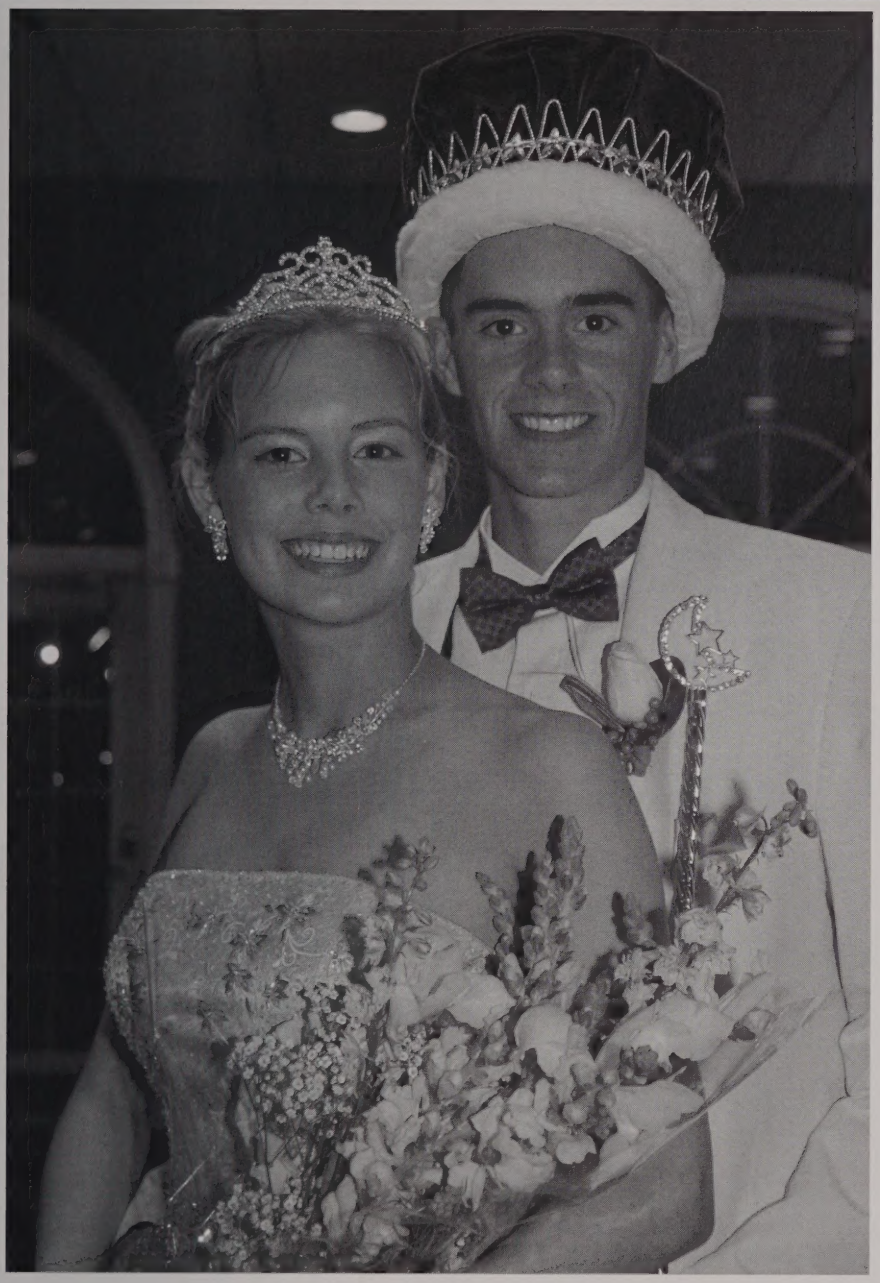
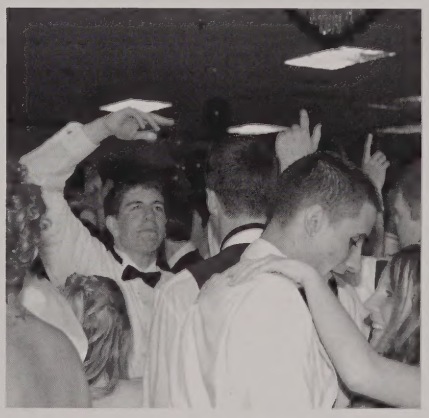
Prom 2005

Friday, May 13th * Christina's Foxboro, MA





The 2005 Prom was indeed a success. The night was capped of with the crowing of Kristin Collins and Sean Coveney as the King and Queen. Harry McKenzie, Jaime Adler, Rich Carty, Lisa Marinelli, Dan Watson, Jasmine Perez, Angela Lanzoni, Wael Kafel, Ali Irving, Carlos DelCompare, Jen Valentino and Mike Salvi made the court.

Graduation June 5, 2005

Moving speeches were given by Valedictorian Christine O'Neil, Salutatorian Hannah Perham and Class President Doug Lawson.

Each of the three speakers encouragecd all their classmates to excel in the future. First, Senior Class President Doug Lason spoke, recognizing teachers, coaches, parents and all of the people of Walpole who have supported the senior class. he finished by encouraging his classmates to take their places in the world and to be a credit to the school and to the community which have served as a safe and comfortable place for them to thrive and grow.

Valedictorian Christine O'Neil encouraged the senior class to take initiative and reache for their aspirations. She said, "We cross a shadowy boundary into tomorrow," implying that each individual is personally responsible as she or he faces the threshold of adulthood. The focus of O'Neil's speech was to emphasize that the future has limitless possibilities. She stated that while the past is both fixed and diminishing, the future becomes brighter with each new experience. O'Neil concluded her speech by stressing the power of an individual. She said, "Within us lies enormous promise and great dreams," leaving her class with words of hope to lead them to a promising tomorrow.

The power of a question can have a profound effect. With this in mind, Salutorian Hannah Perham gave her speech in the form of all questions. Asking the seniors to think about the true meaning of graduation, Perham discussed the mystery of life and destiny. Touching upon such topics of September 11, Perham's speech stood out as an awakening to abstract thinking. Urging each graduate to take action before tragedy. Perham asked, "Why is it that so often the people who make great change are those who experienced great misfortune?" She challenged her classmates to break the cycle and embrace change in their lives before tragedy strikes. Perham concluded her speech encouraging her ppers to speak up and move towards what she calls "a more carefully chosen destiny."

Parents seldom realize until their son is grown,
The many ways he's touched their hearts,
or how the time has flown...

It seems one day, the boy is gone-
A young man's in his place,
Facing life on his own terms,
with hopes and dreams to chase...

And though you always trusted
he'd be second best to none,
You never knew how proud you'd be to say, "There goes my Son".
